Overview

This list highlights 19 standout investors engaged in the energy storage sector in the US. Dominating the scene are venture capital firms like MassVentures and Climate Capital, alongside significant contributions from major players like Morgan Stanley and Goldman Sachs. Energy storage venture capital hit $2. That's a 4% increase from last year. The sector attracted serious money because the Inflation Reduction Act made standalone storage projects viable with investment tax credits. North America is at the forefront of a global energy transformation, leveraging its vast renewable. Energy storage systems are increasingly in demand to increase the effectiveness of solar power arrays, with the Energy Information Administration estimating in February that new utility-scale electric-generating capacity on the U. Demand for batteries is projected to surge exponentially, driven by forces including the electric vehicle (EV) boom.
