Overview

While a 20 ft container typically rents for $120–$140 per month, most 40 ft containers rent for just $140–$199 per month (as of August 2025). That means you can double your storage space for less than 50% more cost. With over 320 square feet of floor space, it's big enough to hold the contents of a small warehouse, a contractor's entire staging area, or the seasonal inventory for a retail business. The 20-foot, 40-foot, and 40-foot High Cube containers are the most common sizes for shipping containers that are to be used for export shipment or for storage. Both sizes are large enough to hold a substantial amount of freight and fit into loading slots on container ships. Tractor trailers that. Moving container costs for goods from port to port and country to country differs majorly depending on several key factors that are given below: Container freight cost is dependent on the route you select from the port of origin to the port of destination. But there are also other variations, including different sizes and refrigerated units. These factors can significantly impact the final price you pay. Let's break them down: New Containers: Often called “one-trip” containers, these have only made a single journey across the ocean.
