

How to sign a contract for solar panels

Overview

To effectively sign a contract for solar energy installation, it's important to understand 1. the legal obligations involved in signing, 3. Contracts often last 20 years or more. You don't buy the system or own anything installed on your property during the term of the contract, you're entitled to use all the power the system produces. You'll probably buy less power from your electricity. Yet, a home solar contract has terms and details you should understand before signing a major, long-term investment. Our guide is designed to give you a clear walkthrough of the sections and details you're likely to encounter. You could also sign a Power Purchase Agreement or a PPA, meaning you buy energy from your rooftop solar panels but you don't own the system. As the cost of solar energy comes down, more Americans are installing solar. After you have picked your solar installer, you will obviously need to sign a contract. This is usually done online electronically.
