

Where are Dongxu photovoltaic panels produced

Overview

Dongxu Group is the only company which has owned intellectual property rights from R&D, designing, manufacturing and technical of FPD glass substrate in China. Our main business is FPD glass substrate and PV modules manufacture. At the same time for developing PV industries we special set up a. Dongxu, also known as Tungshu, was established in 1997 and its headquarters and R&D center are located in Beijing. 2 billion kilowatts, and the road map for achieving 2030 "carbon peak" and 2060 "carbon neutrality" has become increasingly clear. Solar hydrogen panels operate via photovoltaic–electrochemical (PV-EC) water splitting with two components: the and the (or electrolyzer). The photovoltaic cell uses solar energy to generate electricity, which it sends to an electrochemical cell.
